Script: Have you ever heard the word, “SDG”? It’s a truly mind boggling question. What is Sustainable Development (SDGs)? My name is Tuhin, and in today’s presentation we’ll be discussing about the topic of sustainable development.

Slide 2: Tuhin Sarkar

What is SDG?

The Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs), established by the UN in 2015, include 17 key objectives to end poverty, protect the planet, and ensure prosperity for all by 2030. These goals cover essential areas such as quality education, gender equality, clean energy, and climate action, all aimed at fostering sustainable and inclusive growth globally.

"Good health and sanitation are the foundation of a thriving community. By maintaining cleanliness, proper hygiene, and access to clean water, we prevent the spread of diseases and promote well-being. Let's all take simple steps like washing our hands, disposing of waste properly, and ensuring our environment is clean. Together, we can create a healthier, happier world for everyone."

Our planet's future depends on urgent climate action. Protecting life below water and life on land is crucial. Oceans need our help to combat pollution and overfishing, while forests and wetlands require our commitment to prevent deforestation and degradation. By taking decisive action now, we ensure a sustainable, thriving world for all species. Let's act with resolve to protect our planet's precious ecosystems.

Quality Education
Quality Education is a fundamental right of every human being on the planet. It's the cornerstone for human resource development. One of the leading reasons of unemployment in India is bad quality education, mainly education in government schools. A 2014 report by Associated Chamber of Commerce and Industry of India (ACER) shows that only 41 per cent of children studying in government schools in the age group of 6-14 can read a standard two text. Multiple cases of incapable teachers have come up in governments schools, namely, in 2019 in Uttar Pradesh, an English teacher named Unnao fails to read a few lines of the language from a book after the District Magistrate, Devendra Kumar Pandey, asked her to read during an inspection of a govt school in Sikandarpur, Sarausi.

Script: Corruption in India is a significant issue, impacting various aspects of society and governance. It manifests in the form of bribery affecting public services, law enforcement, and the political system. Major scandals have involved large-scale financial irregularities in sectors like telecommunications, coal allocation, and law enforcement. On the corruption index of India, 51% of citizens admitted to paying bribes which is an all time high and very poor as per the international standards.

Corruption in Law Enforcement
One of the most recent and the most popular corruption incident occurred on 18th May 2024 when a 17-year-old minor named Vedant Agrawal crashed into a couple on a bike under the influence of alcohol. Upon being bought to the police station, he was given Pizza and his blood samples were manipulated. In trial, he received a punishment of a 300-word essay and community service for killing two people on a motorcycle.

The NEET Scam
The NEET scam is a stark reality in India, where seats are sold to the highest bidder, crushing the dreams of deserving students. Corruption and nepotism reign, denying merit-based opportunities. It's time to demand transparency, accountability, and reform. Let's unite to end this injustice and ensure that education is a right, not a privilege for the privileged few."
